10. [redacted] Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, called and asked if I could refresh his memory on the title of the Soviet film which he and Bob Michaels, who was on the House Appropriations Committee staff, viewed here at Headquarters some years ago. After checking with [redacted] of CRS, I advised Woodruff the film he saw was a Soviet training film entitled "True Sons of the People;" that he and Michaels saw it on 24 April 1969. He has been asked to look at a Soviet film and he wanted to see if it was the same one he had seen earlier, but it is not.

Met with Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, and brought him up-to-date on a number of current intelligence items. See Memorandum for the Record.

We chatted briefly about the ramifications for the Agency of a debt ceiling along the lines now being discussed in the Congress. Woodruff said if such a ceiling were imposed it could well bring about a cut in the Agency budget. (Later in the day the Senate rejected the ceiling proposed in conference and sent the legislation back to the conference committee.)
